05/04/2018	17	JOINT LETTER addressed to Judge Ronnie Abrams from William Friedman and Natasha Teleanu dated May 4, 2018 re: Status Report. Document filed by Lisa Ramaci.(Friedman, William) (Entered: 05/04/2018)
05/07/2018	18	ORDER: Although the Court is sympathetic to Plaintiff's desire to obtain the relevant documents to which she claims she is entitled as quickly as possible, summary-judgment briefing is premature at this time. There are still thousands of pages of documents that the FBI has agreed to review and process between now and December 2018. Although Plaintiff describes the issue with regard to the (b)(7)(D) redactions as "discrete," it appears likely that related but distinct issues will continue to arise throughout the course of the remaining production. At present, it would be inefficient for both the parties and the Court to address Plaintiff's objection. When the Court has a more complete record, it will be better positioned to assess the parties' arguments. The Court thus denies Plaintiff's request for a summary-judgment briefing schedule without prejudice. As the record develops and documents are produced, Plaintiff may renew her request if she believes it appropriate to do so. If Plaintiff chooses to renew her request prior to the end of the scheduled productions, she should indicate in her request why she believes the issues on which she seeks partial summary judgment are not likely to be implicated by the documents that have not yet been produced, and as further set forth herein. (Signed by Judge Ronnie Abrams on 5/7/2018) (ras) Modified on 5/7/2018 (ras). (Entered: 05/07/2018)
